

Clinical Lead Person Specification

FACTOR	ESSENTIAL	DESIRABLE but not essential
QUALIFICATIONS &amp; EDUCATION	Registered Nurse Current NMC registration Relevant degree qualification  Wound management module – level 6 or 7 Leg Ulcer module – level 6 or 7	Chronic oedema training Teaching and assessing course Prescribing qualification Evidence of studying at level 7 Research module
WORK RELATED KNOWLEDGE &amp; EXPERIENCE	Minimum 3 years nursing experience as a wound or leg ulcer Specialist Community nursing experience Complex leg ulcer related caseload responsibility Expert in compression therapy and theory Experience of working autonomously and in service development Experience of implementing Quality Improvement initiatives Knowledge of risk management Experience of teaching in variety of settings	Publication Delivery of clinical audit Designed training packages Experience of presenting at national conference Multidisciplinary working Line Management responsibility
SKILLS	Delivery of Clinical Leadership Able to work with minimal supervision in assessing, planning, implementing, and evaluating care for patients Experience of supervising and mentoring other health professionals and students Experience of managing conflict within teams and patient delivery Competent with Microsoft software such as Powerpoint and Excel Experience of quality improvement	Experience of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Completing root cause analysis</li> <li>• Learning from incidents</li> <li>• Clinical research of evaluation</li> <li>• Virtual clinical assessment</li> <li>• Data analysis</li> <li>• Guideline or policy writing</li> </ul>
PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES AND APTITUDES	Professional behaviour with good customer service skills Evidence of being a reflective practitioner that delivers both insight and personal growth Able to work under pressure Safe practitioner with attention to detail Organised approach to work, ability to prioritise, good time management

Clinical Lead Person Specification

	Strong communication skills and fluent in English, written and verbal Flexibility in approach to work and understands team working Willingness to learn and implement new ideas, be creative and have the desire to progress with professional development Commitment to facilitating learning in others
CIRCUMSTANCES	Holds valid UK work permit	Access to private transport Holds current driver's licence and is able and willing to drive